CWBL ASSISTS SMALL BUSINESS WITH EXPANSION

CWBL was able to help Linda Hays, owner of Hopscotch Toys in McMinnville, with the opening of a second location. The Lincoln County Loan Fund program was able to fund leasehold improvements, purchase of inventory, and working capital needed while getting the new store established. The second store is nestled in the quaint Marketplace at Salishan in Gleneden Beach.

With 20 years in the toy business, toys are carefully selected by Linda and referred to as open-ended toys. Unlike toys with a fixed purpose, open-ended toys can be used in multiple ways, allowing children to engage in imaginative play. They don't dictate how they should be used, leaving room for children's creativity. Most toys are high-quality wooden toys or sturdy recycled plastic options that last longer and contribute to a more sustainable play environment. They avoid excessive features, flashy lights, or noisy components. This fosters creativity and helps prevent overstimulation. Hopscotch Toys carries quality toys from trusted brands with a focus on play value.

The stores service all ages from infant to adult, with a focus on toys in the 2-10 age range. Come and see the assortment of games, puzzles, arts and crafts, kites, stuffed and plastic animals, construction sets and science kits available. Free gift wrap is offered on all purchases. You can shop online or come down and play!!
