CASCADES WEST BUSINESS LENDING

ALBANY OWNERS RECEIVE LOAN TO PURCHASE SECOND BUSINESS AND EXPAND

Jake and Lindsey Thompson, owners of Jake's Handyman Solutions LLC, dba Hub City Junk Removal, discovered an opportunity to purchase a well-established business, Sudz in the Bucket, that would expand their services and service area. When the buyer and seller met for the first time, they both knew it was a perfect fit and wanted to move forward right away. Unable to obtain traditional financing due to a short time in their first business, CWBL was able to make a loan for the business purchase.

Both Jake and Lyndsey are Navy Veterans and Willamette Valley natives who moved back to the valley after serving our country to raise their family. They are excited to be back home and honored to have the opportunity to now serve their community. Visit their website for information on services they offer. Seniors, Veterans, and First Responders receive a 10% discount!
